After having escaped the tsunami by a few last minute decisions not to stay at the beach, we feel compelled to return to Ranong Thailand to help the survivors who lost everything on December 26th. We helped in the local relief efforts, including assisting people in the Ranong hospital after the tsunami hit. This relief effort is in honor of those victims who lost family and friends because of the deadly waves. Donations will be delivered in person to the local villagers when we return to Thailand on January 30th to help in the rebuilding efforts.

Karp Koon Kup (Thank you)
